

Worship and Transformation

Romans 12:1-2

*“ Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.”
(Romans 12:1-2)*

Small group questions

1. God's mercy must be understood and experienced to produce genuine (true and proper) worship. How important is it to understand and appropriate the Gospel to produce genuine worship? How would you evaluate the quality of your worship (i.e. offering your bodies as a living sacrifice)?
2. Share how God has been working in you to not conform to the world and experience transformation.
3. How well do you discern God's will? Do you have hard time discerning His will? What will help or harm discerning His will?
4. What is one thing you can pray as you desire to apply this verse in your life?
